External Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

St Bernard and the Sacred Heart

‘Thou hast wounded my heart, my sister, my spouse, thou hast wounded my heart with one of thy eyes’ (Canticle of Canticles IV, 9). Oh hard-hearted man, what lamentable hardness of heart, that words such as these cannot wound! How utterly lacking in sentiment must be the heart that does not understand the force of these words; that is not rapt with admiration at the sight of such extraordinary esteem! But why do I say esteem? This is more than esteem! A wounded heart bespeaks a violent love. Yea it is he who ‘first hath loved us’ (I Jn. IV, 16).

What a miracle this is, my brethren! Is the soul not happy that can pierce and traverse, by its pious affections of love, the very Heart of Our Lord Jesus Christ? Oh how it is great and powerful, the strength of Charity; she reaches even unto the Love of God, and, like an arrow, she pierces his Heart. And the Lord himself suffers from this wound with a violent love. Thou hast wounded my heart, my sister, my spouse, he says, thou hast wounded my heart with one of thy eyes, and with one hair of thy neck. Cease not, O Spouse, to wound thy beloved by such blows as these. Turn piously thine eyes towards him, and may thy glance be a sharpened arrow. Happy thou art if the arrow strike him!

How much more freely doth grace flow forth when his heart is wounded, and not merely grazed? But to be struck by arrows such as these is his joy, for he returns the same in kind! He looked on Peter, and he struck his heart with darts of penitence. Ill health indeed that knows no languor when wounded by a tender glance of Christ. One glance provokes another, so seek to wound that Heart with a glance of your eye. Yea, may your eyes be ever turned towards the Lord, and may he be wounded by your glances of love”.

St Bernard (Sermon 30, on the Canticle of Canticles)

PROPERs of the MASS

External Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

INTROIT Psalm 32. 11, 19

The thoughts of His Heart are from generation to generation: To deliver their souls from death and feed them in famine. Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye just, praise becometh the upright. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT

O God, Who in the Heart of Thy Son, wounded by our sins, dost mercifully vouchsafe to bestow upon us the infinite wealth of Thy love; grant, we beseech Thee, that revering It with meet devotion, we may fulfil our duty of worthy reparation. Through the same our Lord.

EPISTLE Ephesians 3. 8-19

Brethren: To me, the least of all the Saints, is given the grace, to preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ: and to enlighten all men, that they may see what is the dispensation of the mystery which hath been hidden from eternity in God, Who created all things: that the manifold wisdom of God may be made known to the principalities and powers in heavenly places through the Church, according to the eternal purpose which He made in Christ Jesus our Lord: in Whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of Him. For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of Whom all paternity in Heaven and earth is named, that He would grant you according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened by His Spirit with might unto the inward man, that Christ may dwell by faith in your hearts: that being rooted and grounded in charity, you may be able to comprehend with all the Saints, what is the breadth and length, and height and depth: to know also the charity of Christ which surpasseth all knowledge. That you may be filled unto all the fullness of God.

GRADUAL Psalm 24. 8, 9

The Lord is sweet and righteous: therefore He will give a law to sinners in the way. V. He will guide the mild in judgment: He will teach the meek His ways.

ALLELUIA Matthew 11. 29

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Take My yoke upon you and learn of Me, because I am meek and humble of heart: and you shall find rest to your souls. Alleluia.

GOSPEL John 14. 23-31

At that time: The Jews (because it was the Parasceve), that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the Sabbath day (for that was a great Sabbath day), besought Pilate that their legs might be broken: and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came: and they broke the legs of the first, and of the other that was crucified with him. But after they were come to Jesus, when they saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. But one of the soldiers, with a spear opened His side, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he knoweth that saw it, hath given testimony: and his testimony is true. And he knoweth that he saith true, that you may believe. For these things were done that the Scripture might be fulfilled: You shall not break a bone of Him. And again another Scripture saith: They shall look on Him Whom they pierced.

OFFERTORY Psalm 68. 21

My Heart hath expected reproach and misery: and I looked for one that would grieve together with Me, but there was none: and for one that would comfort Me, and I found none.

SECRET

Look, we beseech Thee, O Lord, upon the ineffable love of the Heart of Thy beloved Son; that our offering may be acceptable unto Thee and atone for all our sins. Through the same our Lord.

COMMUNION John 19. 34

One of the soldiers with a spear opened His side, and immediately there came out blood and water.

POSTCOMMUNION

May Thy holy mysteries, O Lord Jesus, produce in us a divine fervour, whereby, having tasted the sweetness of Thy most dear Heart, we may learn to despise earthly things and love those of heaven: Who livest and reigneth.
