Behold a Virgin shall conceive and bear a son', says Isaiah in today's communion antiphon. The time is drawing very near when we, in spirit, will be taken to Bethlehem by the Church's liturgy, where we will truly adore Christ in the mystery of His sacred birth in our humanity. Can you image it? God incarnate, born of the Blessed Virgin Mary, true God from true God, the creator of the world, as a tiny babe, lain in a manger. There are not enough words in the history of the world to do justice to this sublime mystery and the historical fact of the incarnation, for our salvation. Silent adoration, in addition to the beautiful liturgical texts used during Christmas, is another, profound way to express our joy at the birth of the Christ-child. It was the way of the shepherds, who were the first human beings, other than Mary and Joseph, to adore our Lord. The angels were present, too, at this sublime event. May we thank God to the best of our ability, with the help of his grace, and join our 'Gloria in excelsis Deo' to that of the angels present at the first Christmas.
Fr Gribbin
