Pope Pius XI and the institution of the Feast of Christ the King

The Solemnity of Christ the King of the Universe was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925 in his Encyclical 'Quas Primas'

'The faithful, moreover, by meditating upon these truths, will gain much strength and courage, enabling them to form their lives after the true Christian ideal. If to Christ our Lord is given all power in Heaven and on earth; if all men, purchased by his precious blood, are by a new right subjected to His dominion; if this power embraces all men, it must be clear that not one of our faculties is exempt from His empire. He must reign in our minds, which should assent with perfect submission and firm belief to revealed truths and to the doctrines of Christ. He must reign in our wills, which should obey the laws and precepts of God. He must reign in our hearts, which should spurn natural desires and love God above all things, and cleave to Him alone. He must reign in our bodies and in our members, which should serve as instruments for the interior sanctification of our souls, or to use the words of the Apostle Paul, as instruments of justice unto God. [35] If all these truths are presented to the faithful for their consideration, they will prove a powerful incentive to perfection. It is Our fervent desire, Venerable Brethren, that those who are without the fold may seek after and accept the sweet yoke of Christ, and that we, who by the mercy of God are of the household of the faith, may bear that yoke, not as a burden but with joy, with love, with devotion; that having lived our lives in accordance with the laws of God's kingdom, we may receive full measure of good fruit, and counted by Christ good and faithful servants, we may be rendered partakers of eternal bliss and glory with Him in His Heavenly kingdom.'

Pius XI - Quas Primas 1925(excerpt)

Notes on Canon Poucin's Faith Talk Talk 1: Introduction to the seven Gifts of the Holy Ghost.

The inspirations of the Holy Ghost are always ordered to enable us to act perfectly so as to attain our salvation. A common misunderstanding is to think that the gifts of the Holy Ghost received at baptism are the same as at confirmation. St Thomas Aquinas in the Summa Theologiae Ia IIae, Q68 poses a distinction between the virtues and the gifts of the Holy Ghost. They are similar and linked but nonetheless distinct. The 'virtues' are infused directly by God at baptism and the 'gifts' (referred to in scripture as 'The spirit of...' see Is 11 2,3 as the spirit of ..understanding...etc..) are given at confirmation.

Virtue - Baptism			Gift - Confirmation
Theological virtues - Infused at baptism. The action is directed towards God	Charity	Corresponds to	Knowledge	Corresponds to one of the beatitudes
	Faith		Understanding
	Hope		Wisdom
Cardinal virtues - human virtues giving a permanent disposition, to guide our actions. Elevated to a supernatural level at baptism	Prudence		Counsel
	Justice		Piety
	Strength		Fortitude
	Temperance		Fear of the Lord

Jesus promises to send the Holy Ghost Jn 14:15 and St Paul in his Epistles repeatedly refers to the Holy Ghost. It is the action of the Holy Ghost in us that will transform us into the image of Jesus.

The Holy Ghost is the procession of love between the Father and the Son. God is both power/intelligence (in metaphysics termed the potential to exist but not yet in existence) and action/procession = will/love (in meta physics the realization of that potential). For love to be perfect it MUST be reciprocated. A failure to reciprocate leaves a love that is incomplete. Jesus' Sacrifice on Calvary atones for our imperfect love. Hence the Mass offers to God THE perfect offering.

The gifts of the Holy Ghost support and purify us to aid our journey towards God but never infringes our free will.
