LENT 2018

Dear friends of the Shrine,

Lent has come to remind us of the reason why the Word was made flesh: our Blessed Lord assumed a human nature in his divine Person for our Salvation. His mission for this world will be gradually unfolded before his disciples and his people: He calls every single soul to personal conversion so that they will follow their Redeemer and love their Creator.

There is no love of God without a deep and profound change of life, renewed by our daily faithfulness to His commandments, which are nothing else than the Book of Charity. Lent is therefore a time when the Liturgy stops using outward signs of joy (violet vestments, no flowers on Altars, nor relics, no Alleluia) in order to help us to focus on what is most important, God and our love for Him.

In a world where materialism and secularism have taken over humanity, our strong and patient conversion is the ideal response. Our Lord is the (and our) Alpha and Omega, the only reason why penance, sacrifice and charity make sense. Penance should not frighten us: penance is the patient bearing of our crosses, accepting our Lord's will.

Would we embrace these crosses for our conversion and the redemption of many? Saint Francis de Sales calls the Cross "the very Book of Christians" (Sermon for the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, 3rd May 1594), which we shall open everyday.

Blessed Lenten season!

God bless you,

Canon Montjean

Canon Poucin de Wouilt

Canon Parant
