

Baptism

After you have listened to Canon's teaching see if you can answer these tricky questions

There are three types of baptism:

- sacramental,
- baptism of desire,
- baptism by martyrdom.

What are the effects of baptism?- tick the right answers

Baptism makes me a child of God	<input type="checkbox"/>	Baptism removes original sin only.	<input type="checkbox"/>	Baptism removes both the original sin and all other sins.	<input type="checkbox"/>	Sacramental baptism leaves a permanent seal on our soul.	<input type="checkbox"/>	Baptism by desire removes original sin and also leaves a permanent seal on our soul	<input type="checkbox"/>
---------------------------------	--------------------------	------------------------------------	--------------------------	---	--------------------------	--	--------------------------	---	--------------------------

Baptism in cases of emergency

Peter's best friend, Kyle had learnt about Jesus at school, but he himself had never been baptised. The country was in the middle of a terrible pandemic and there were no priests for miles. Kyle became quite unwell and asked Peter to baptise him. Put a tick by the correct answer for Kyle's baptism to be valid in an emergency.

Baptism water is necessary	<input type="checkbox"/>	If possible pour the water all over the body	<input type="checkbox"/>	Peter must say 'I baptise you and call you Kyle.'	<input type="checkbox"/>	Peter must be a Christian	<input type="checkbox"/>
Any liquid will do	<input type="checkbox"/>	If there is a river or bath, Kyle should be immersed in the water	<input type="checkbox"/>	Peter must say 'I claim you for Christ'	<input type="checkbox"/>	Peter must have the intention to baptise.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Any fresh water will do.	<input type="checkbox"/>	The water should be poured onto the forehead.	<input type="checkbox"/>	Peter must say "I baptise you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit'	<input type="checkbox"/>	If there was no one to baptise Kyle, he could baptise himself.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Baptism of desire

People who have not been able to receive sacramental baptism but have a deep desire to receive the sacrament can have original sin removed by this sincere desire and so become adopted children of God. True or False?

What are the effects of baptism?- tick the right answers

Baptism makes me a child of God.	X	Baptism removes original sin only.		Baptism removes both the original sin and all other sins.	X	Sacramental baptism leaves a permanent seal on our soul.	X	Baptism by desire removes original sin and also leaves a permanent seal on our soul
Jesus is God's only Son but baptism makes us his adopted children				Baptism removes all sins up to the point of Baptism. Any sin committed after baptism will need to be confessed in the usual ways		Explain what the seal is here??		No, baptism by desire removes original sin but does not leave the seal on the soul.

Baptism in cases of emergency

Peter's best friend, Kyle had learnt about Jesus at school, but he himself had never been baptised. The country was in the middle of a terrible pandemic and there were no priests for miles. Kyle became quite unwell and asked Peter to baptise him. Put a tick by the correct answer for Kyle's baptism to be valid in an emergency.

Baptism water is necessary		If possible pour the water all over the body		Peter must say 'I baptise you and call you Kyle.'		Peter must be a Christian
Any liquid will do		If there is a river or bath, Kyle should be immersed in the water		Peter must say 'I claim you for Christ'		Peter must have the intention to baptise.	X
Any fresh water will do.	X	The water should be poured onto the forehead.	X	Peter must say "I baptise you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit'	X	If there was no one to baptise Kyle, he could baptise himself.

Baptism of desire

People who have not been able to receive sacramental baptism but have a deep desire to receive the sacrament can have original sin removed by this sincere desire and so become adopted children of God. True