NOVENA IN PREPARATION FOR THE FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

The priest arrives at the foot of the altar and leads the people in reciting one decade of the Rosary, followed three times by the invocation: "O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee". Then a sermon might follow.

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of six staves of music in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. The lyrics are written below the staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with square notes and stems. The lyrics are in Latin and describe the Eucharist and the Passion of Christ. The hymn ends with a double bar line.

*Hail to Thee! True Body sprung from of the Virgin Mary's womb!
The same that on the Cross was hung and bore for man the bitter doom.
Thou whose side was pierced and flowed both with water and with blood;
suffer us to taste of Thee in our life's last agony.
O kind, O loving One! O Jesus, Mary's Son!*

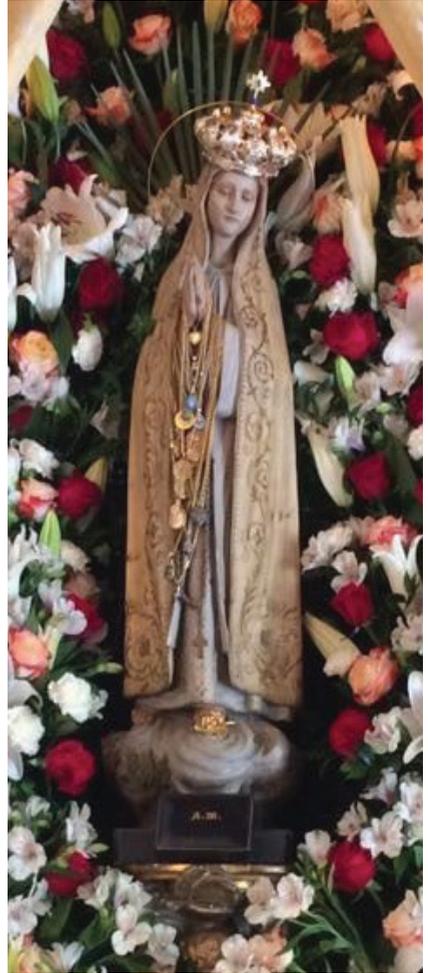

Novena Prayer

O MOST Holy Virgin who wast pleasing to God and didst become His Mother. Immaculate in your body, in your soul, in your faith and in your love, we beseech thee to look graciously upon the wretched who implore thy powerful protection.

THE wicked serpent, against whom the primal curse was hurled, continues nonetheless to wage war and to lay snares for the unhappy children of Eve.

AH, do thou, our blessed Mother, our Queen and Advocate, who from the first instant of thy conception didst crush the head of our enemy, receive the prayers that we unite single-heartedly to thine and conjure thee to offer at the throne of God, that we may never fall into the snares that are laid for us, in such wise that we may all come to the haven of salvation; and in the midst of so many dangers may holy Church and the fellowship of Christians everywhere sing once more the hymn of deliverance, victory and peace.

Amen.

Prayer for England

O blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God and our most gentle Queen and Mother, look down in mercy upon England thy Dowry and upon us all who greatly hope and trust in thee. By thee it was that Jesus our Saviour and our hope was given unto the world; and He has given thee to us that we might hope still more.

Plead for us thy children, whom thou didst receive and accept at the foot of the Cross, O sorrowful Mother. Intercede for our separated brethren, that with us in the one true fold they may be united to the chief Shepherd, the Vicar of thy Son.

Pray for us all, dear Mother, that by faith fruitful in good works we may all deserve to see and praise God, together with thee, in our heavenly home.

Amen.
