Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Explanation on the meaning of the blessed candles

by Dom Prosper Guéranger

« The mystery of today's ceremony has frequently been explained by liturgists, dating from the 7th century. According to St. Ivo of Chartres [In his Second Sermon on the Purification], the wax which is formed from the juice of flowers by the bee, (which has always been considered as the emblem of virginity,) signifies the virginal flesh of the Divine Infant, who diminished not, either by his conception or his birth, the spotless purity of his Blessed Mother.

The same holy Bishop would have us see, in the flame of our Candle, a symbol of Jesus, who came to enlighten our darkness. St. Anselm [Enarrations on St. Luke] Archbishop of Canterbury, speaking on the same mystery, bids us consider three things in the blest Candle: the Wax, the Wick, and the Flame. The Wax, he says, which is the production of the virginal bee, is the Flesh of our Lord; the Wick, which is within, is his Soul; the Flame, which burns on the top, is his Divinity. »

Dom Guéranger, The Liturgical Year

Congratulations to Abbé Andrea de Pascale (Italy) and Abbé Christian Juneau (Canada) who received the Holy Diaconate from the Most Rev. Guido Pozzo, Archbishop of Bagnoregio last Friday 29th January, on the Feast day of St Francis de Sales

Restauration Work update

Check our website to look at the inside of the scaffolding and admire the beautiful work already done:

17th February: Ash Wednesday

Please bring your palms back to sacristy before Quinquagesima Sunday (14th February), to be burned and turned to ashes for Ash Wednesday.

Thank you very much in advance!

We are running the heating system of the church on Sundays and also during the week.

To ensure that you will not be stopped by the frost to come and pray we continue to warm the church everyday for the evening offices.

We would really appreciate your help to cover the extra costs of the heating of the church and presbytery, using the collection boxes at the entrance and exit of the church.

Thank you for your generosity!

PROPERs of the MASS

St Francis de Sales

INTROIT Ecclesiasticus 45, 8, 9; Ps. 118, 103

The Lord made an everlasting covenant with him and gave to him the priesthood of the nation and made him blessed in glory: He girded him about with a glorious girdle and clothed him with a robe of glory and crowned him with majestic attire. Ps. How sweet are Thy words to my palate, more than honey to my mouth. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT

O God, by whose will blessed Francis, Thy Confessor, Bishop and Confessor, became all things unto all men for the salvation of souls: graciously grant, that being filled with the sweetness of Thy love, we may by following his counsels, and helped by his merits, attain unto everlasting joys. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE Ephesian 3, 7-21.

I am made a minister (of the Gospel) according to the gift of the grace of God, which is given unto me according to the operation of His power. Unto me, the least of all the Saints, is given the grace to preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ: and to enlighten all men, that they may see what is the dispensation of the mystery which hath been hidden from eternity in God, Who created all things: that the manifold wisdom of God may be made known to the principalities and powers in heavenly places through the Church, according to the eternal purpose which He made in Christ Jesus our Lord: in Whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of Him. For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of Whom all paternity in Heaven and earth is named, that He would grant you according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened by His Spirit with might unto the inward man, that Christ may dwell by faith in your hearts: that being rooted and grounded in charity, you may be able to comprehend with all the Saints, what is the breadth and length, and height and depth: to know also the charity of Christ which surpasseth all knowledge that you may be filled unto all the fullness of God. Now to him who is able to do all things more abundantly than we desire or understand according to the power that worketh in us: To him be glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus, unto all generations, world without end. Amen.

GRADUAL Eccli. 33, 18-19

See that I have not laboured for myself only, but for all that seek discipline. Hear me, ye great men, and all ye people: and harken with your ears, ye rulers of the Church.

TRACT Ps. 33, 9; Prov. 16, 23; 17, 27

O taste, and see that the Lord is sweet: blessed is the man that hopeth in Him. The heart of the wise man shall teach his mouth: and add grace to his lips. He that setteth bounds to his words, is shrewd and wise: and the man of understanding is of a precious spirit.

GOSPEL Matthew 5, 13-19

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt lose its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is good for nothing any more but to be cast out, and be trodden on by men. You are the light of the world. A city seated on a mountain cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel but upon a candlestick, that it may shine to all that are before men that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father, Who is in heaven. Do not think that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For amen I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall not pass of the law, till all be fulfilled. He therefore that shall break one of these least commandments, and so shall teach men, shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but he that shall do and teach, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

OFFERTORY Apoc. 2, 19

I know thy works, and thy faith and charity, and thy ministry and patience: and thy last works which are more than the former.

SECRET

Do Thou, O Lord, by means of this salutary sacrifice which we offer unto Thee, kindle in us that divine fire of the Holy Ghost wherewith Thou didst so wondrously inflame the gentle soul of blessed Francis. Through our Lord... in the unity of the same.

COMMUNION I Cor. 9, 22.

To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak. I became all things to all men, that I might save all.

POSTCOMMUNION

O God, Who in blessed Francis, Thy Confessor and Bishop, didst bestow upon Thy Church a distinguished minister of Christian perfection, and through him didst deign to enrich her with a new offspring of holy virgins: do Thou, by means of the sacrament which we have received, graciously grant that we may here on earth imitate his charity and gentleness, and attain unto his glory in heaven. Through our Lord.
