THY WILL BE DONE

"The wages of sin are death, but the grace of God is life everlasting."

In the Holy Gospel for today's Mass, we hear once more the words of our Divine Master as He preaches to the multitudes upon the mountain. He warns us, "Not every one that says to me, 'Lord, Lord' will enter into the kingdom of heaven; he that does the will of my Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven." Jesus tells us that we must not just know or believe in God, but that we must want to do His will in the details of our lives each day. Those who do not "practice what they preach" are "false prophets," bearing "bad fruit." Those who "hear the word of God, and keep it" put their faith into practice by works and words of charity, bearing good fruit and doing the will of the Father. Let us call upon the Holy Spirit to produce good fruit in us for the kingdom of God.

The Mass, Cranmer's Liturgy & the English Reformation

Canon Gribbin has produced an educational resource to help explain what Thomas Cranmer changed in the Mass when he produced his first and second Book of Common Prayer in 1549 and 1552.

Complementary copies are available at the back of church.

Please ask one of the canons for a copy if there are no more copies.

Understanding what was changed and why can help deepen our appreciation of the Catholic Mass.

PROPERS of the MASS

Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

INTROIT Psalm 46. 2

Clap your hands, all ye nations: shout unto God with the voice of joy. Ps. For the Lord is most high, He is terrible; He is a great King over all the earth. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT

O God, Whose providence in the ordering of all things never fails; we humbly beseech Thee to put away from us all harmful things, and to give us those which are profitable for us. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE Romans 6. 19–23

Brethren: I speak a human thing, because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as you have yielded your members to serve uncleanness and iniquity unto iniquity, so now yield your members to serve justice unto sanctification. For when you were the servants of sin, you were free from justice. What fruit therefore had you then in those things, of which you are now ashamed? For the end of them is death. But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end life everlasting. For the wages of sin is death. But the grace of God is life everlasting; in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL Psalm 33. 12, 6

Come children, hearken to me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord. V. Come ye to Him and be enlightened; and your faces shall not be confounded.

ALLELUIA Psalm 46. 2

Alleluia, alleluia. V. O clap your hands, all ye nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy. Alleluia.

GOSPEL Matthew 7. 15–21

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit shall be cut down, and shall be cast into the fire.

Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them. Not every one that saith to Me: Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven.

OFFERTORY Daniel 3. 40

As in holocausts of rams and bullocks, and as in thousands of fat lambs; so let our sacrifice be made in Thy sight this day, that it may please Thee: for there is no confusion to them that trust in Thee, O Lord.

SECRET

O God Who, in this one sacrifice, hast perfected the offering of the many victims prescribed under the Old Law: receive this same sacrifice offered by Thy devoted servants and sanctify it with a blessing, like unto that which Thou didst bestow upon the offerings of Abel; so that what each has offered here to the glory of Thy name, may profit all unto salvation. Through our Lord.

PREFACE OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks to Thee, holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God: Who, together with Thine only-begotten Son and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord: not in the Oneness of a single Person, but in the Trinity of one substance. For what by Thy revelation we believe of Thy glory, the same do we believe of Thy Son, the same of the Holy Ghost, without difference or separation; so that in confessing the true and eternal Godhead, in It we should adore distinction in persons, unity in Essence, and equality in Majesty: in praise of which Angels and Archangels, Cherubim also and Seraphim day and night exclaim, without end and with one voice saying:

COMMUNION Psalm 30. 3

Bow down Thy ear, make haste to deliver me.

POSTCOMMUNION

May Thy healing work in our souls mercifully free us from our perverse inclinations O Lord, and lead us ever to do that which is right in Thy sight. Through our Lord.
