Second Sunday after Epiphany

GOOD DOESN'T MAKE NOISE

"Hating that which is evil, cleaving to that which is good."

The three-fold mystery of the Epiphany is today complete with the first public miracle of Our Lord Jesus Christ, turning water into wine at the wedding feast of Cana. However, unlike His adoration by the Magi and His baptism by John in the Jordan, today's manifestation of the divinity of Christ is accompanied neither by a monumental sign in the heavens nor the voice of Father to proclaim Jesus as His eternal Son. This simple miracle is accomplished in the silent admiration of those who witnessed its silent performance. Jesus made not a show of His power over all of creation (much less to turn water into wine). He simply did the good asked of Him. Let us too do whatever good is asked of us in like manner, making not a spectacle of ourselves or our efforts, but rather simply wishing to do for our fellow man what is good for him because of our love for God who is so good to us. May we also notice the manner and role of our Blessed Mother in today's miracle. It was she who obtained Jesus' attention to perform this benevolent act of mercy so that the holy marriage celebration could continue. Let us ever have recourse to the Blessed Virgin Mary to intercede for us in obtaining God's mercy.

EPIPHANY CHALK AVAILABLE

20 + C + M + B + 23

It is a traditional practice to write the above inscription on the lintel of one's home with blessed chalk after the Feast of Epiphany. The letters "CMB" stand for the names of the three magi (Caspar, Melchior, & Balthasar) as well as the abbreviation Christus mansionem benedicat: May Christ bless this house!

Blessed chalk is available in the narthex for you to take home.
For 2023, mark your home for Christ the King!

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Michael (Joe) Fenerty who will be laid to rest on Friday, 20th January

The Requiem Mass will be offered at 12 noon in the church, followed by interment at Bootle Cemetary.

Epiphany water available

Epiphany water is a special holy water that is blessed on the Vigil of the Epiphany (5th January). This special Epiphany water is available in the large, glass container in the narthex for you to fill up your bottles to take home with you!

PROPERs of the MASS

Second Sunday after Epiphany

INTROIT Psalm 65. 4

Let all the earth adore Thee, O God and sing to Thee: let it sing a psalm to Thy name, O Most High. Ps. Shout with joy to God, all the earth, sing ye a psalm to His name: give glory to His praise V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God who dost govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the prayers of Thy people, and grant us Thy peace all the days of our life. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE Romans 12. 6–16

Brethren: Having different gifts, according to the grace that is given us: either prophecy, to be used according to the rule of faith; or ministry, in ministering; or he that teacheth, in doctrine; he that exhorteth, in exhorting; he that giveth, with simplicity; he that ruleth, with carefulness; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be without dissimulation. Hating that which is evil, cleaving to that which is good: loving one another with the charity of brotherhood, with honour preventing one another: in carefulness not slothful: in spirit fervent: serving the Lord: rejoicing in hope: patient in tribulation: instant in prayer: communicating to the necessities of the saints: pursuing hospitality. Bless them that persecute you: bless, and curse not. Rejoice with them that rejoice, weep with them that weep: being of one mind one towards another; not minding high things but consenting to the humble.

GRADUAL Psalm 106. 20–21

The Lord sent His word and healed them: and delivered them from their destruction. V. Let the mercies of the Lord give glory to Him: and His wonderful works to the children of men.

ALLELUIA Psalm 148. 2

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Praise ye the Lord, all His Angels: praise ye Him, all His hosts. Alleluia.

GOSPEL John 2. 1–11

At that time there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee: and the mother of Jesus was there. And Jesus also was invited, and His disciples, to the marriage. And the wine failing, the mother of Jesus saith to Him: They have no wine. And Jesus saith to her: Woman, what is that to Me and to thee? My hour is not yet come. His mother saith to the waiters: Whatsoever He shall say to you, do ye. Now there were set there six waterpots of stone, according to the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three measures apiece. Jesus saith to them: Fill the waterpots with water.

And they filled them up to the brim. And Jesus said to them: Draw out now, and carry to the chief steward of the feast. And they carried it. And when the chief steward had tasted the water made wine, and knew not whence it was, but the waiters knew who had drawn the water: the chief steward calleth the bridegroom, and saith to him: Every man at first setteth forth good wine: and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee; and manifested His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

OFFERTORY Psalm 65. 1–2, 16

Shout with joy to God, all the earth: sing ye a psalm to His name: come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will tell you what great things the Lord hath done for my soul. Alleluia.

SECRET

Sanctify, O Lord, the gifts which we offer, and cleanse us from the stains of our sins. Through our Lord.

PREFACE OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God: Who, together with Thine only-begotten Son, and the Holy Ghost, are one God, one Lord: not in the oneness of a single Person, but in the Trinity of one substance. For what we believe by Thy revelation of Thy glory, the same do we believe of Thy Son, the same of the Holy Ghost, without difference or separation. So that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, distinction in persons, unity in essence, and equality in majesty may be adored. Which the Angels and Archangels, the Cherubim also and Seraphim do praise: who cease not daily to cry out with one voice saying:

COMMUNION John 2. 7, 8, 9, 10–11

The Lord saith: Fill the waterpots with water, and carry to the chief steward. When the chief steward had tasted the water made wine, he saith to the bridegroom: Thou hast kept the good wine until now. This first miracle did Jesus in the presence of His disciples.

POSTCOMMUNION

May the operation of Thy power be increased within us; we beseech Thee, O Lord, that being quickened by Thy divine sacraments, we may by Thy bounty, be prepared to receive that which they promise. Through our Lord.
