Septuagesima Sunday

MANY ARE CALLED

"Why stand you here idle? Go you also into my vineyard."

Meaning "seventy days" in Latin, Septuagesima marks the time in the liturgical year that is about seventy days before the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ on Easter Sunday. Septuagesima begins our preparation for the holy season of Lent just around the corner by reminding us that we all are but pilgrims on this earth with our eyes and hearts set on heaven. However, to get there, we must persevere faithfully until the end. Let us all dedicate ourselves anew to living our faith, fruitful in good works, for the greater glory of God, the exaltation of our Mother, the holy Catholic Church, the sanctification of our own souls, and for the conversion of those "still idle" we pray will join us in the Lord's vineyard so as to receive with us the reward of eternal life in heaven.

Important Safeguarding update

The Shrine of Ss. Peter & Paul and St. Philomena is subscribed totally to the principles of safeguarding young people and the vulnerable. You can read the Shrine's policy upon request or online at: tinyurl.com/3xmbzmah.

As a part of our mission to be a safe environment in which to worship and volunteer, we reassess our practices on a regular basis. We have just undertaken such a review, and as a result, we have the following announcement:

Access to the day chapel via the doors to the left of the sanctuary will only be available immediately before and after Mass, Offices, or Adoration.
Outside of these times, these doors must be kept closed and locked.

Requests for Mass offerings, blessings, stipends, etc.

In order to help limit traffic to and from the sacristy before and after Masses on Sundays, please make use of the Mass Request Envelopes in the narthex to request Masses and leave stipends. If you would like to have any objects blessed, a canon will be available during tea and coffee to bless any objects.
Thank you for your kind assistance in keeping traffic in the sacristy to a minimum.

Want to learn how to serve?

All boys over the age of 7 are invited to learn how to serve Holy Mass and assist in the sanctuary on Sundays.
Please contact Canon Weaver for practice.

PROPERs of the MASS

Septuagesima Sunday

INTROIT Psalm 17. 5,6,7

The sorrows of death surrounded me, the sorrow of hell encompassed me: and in my affliction I called upon the Lord, and He heard my voice from His holy Temple. Ps. I will love Thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my firmament, my refuge, and my deliverer. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT

Graciously hear, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the prayers of Thy people, that we who are justly afflicted for our sins, may be mercifully delivered by Thy goodness, for the glory of Thy name. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE I Corinthians 9. 24-27; 10. 1-5

Brethren: Know you not that they that run in the race, all run indeed, but one receiveth the prize? So run that you may win. And every one that striveth for the mastery refraineth himself from all things: and they indeed that they may receive a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible one. I therefore so run, not as at an uncertainty; I so fight, not as one beating the air: but I chastise my body, and bring it into subjection, lest perhaps when I have preached to others, I myself should become a castaway. For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all in Moses were baptized, in the cloud and in the sea: and did all eat the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink: (and they drank of the spiritual rock that followed them: and the rock was Christ). But with most of them God was not well pleased.

GRADUAL Psalm 9. 10-11, 19-20

A helper in due time in tribulation: let them trust in Thee who know Thee: for Thou hast not forsaken them that seek Thee, O Lord. V. For the poor man shall not be forgotten to the end: the patience of the poor shall not perish for ever: arise, O Lord, let no man prevail.

TRACT Psalm 129. 1-4

Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. V. Let Thine ears be attentive to the prayer of Thy servant. V. If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities: O Lord, who shall abide it? V. For with Thee there is merciful forgiveness, and by reason of Thy law I have waited for Thee, O Lord.

GOSPEL Matthew 10. 1-16

At that time Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: The kingdom of heaven is like to a householder who went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And having agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And going out about the third hour, he saw others standing in the marketplace idle, and he said to them: Go you also into my vineyard, and I will give you what shall be just. And they went their way. And again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour: and did in like manner. But about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing, and he saith to them: Why stand you here all the day idle? They say to him: Because no man hath hired us. He saith to them: Go you also into my vineyard. And when evening was come, the lord of the vineyard saith to his steward: Call the labourers and pay them their hire, beginning from the last even to the first. When therefore they were come that came about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. But when the first also came, they thought that they should receive more: and they also received every man a penny. And receiving it they murmured against the master of the house, saying: These last have worked but one hour, and thou hast made them equal to us that have borne the burden of the day and the heats. But he answering said to one of them: Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst thou not agree with me for a penny? Take what is thine and go thy way: I will also give to this last even as to thee. Or, is it not lawful for me to do what I will? Is thy eye evil, because I am good? So shall the last be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few chosen.

OFFERTORY Psalm 91. 2

It is good to give praise to the Lord, and to sing to Thy name, O Most High.

SECRET

Having received our offerings and prayers, we beseech Thee, O Lord, cleanse us by these heavenly mysteries, and graciously hear us. Through our Lord.

PREFACE OF THE HOLY TRINITY

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God: Who, together with Thine only-begotten Son, and the Holy Ghost, are one God, one Lord: not in the oneness of a single Person, but in the Trinity of one substance. For what we believe by Thy revelation of Thy glory, the same do we believe of Thy Son, the same of the Holy Ghost, without difference or separation. So that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, distinction in persons, unity in essence, and equality in majesty may be adored. Which the Angels and Archangels, the Cherubim also and Seraphim do praise: who cease not daily to cry out with one voice saying:

COMMUNION Psalm 30. 17-18, 2. 51

Make Thy face to shine upon Thy servant, and save me in Thy mercy: let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon Thee.

POSTCOMMUNION

May Thy faithful people, O Lord, be strengthened by Thy gifts: that by partaking of them they may continue to seek after them, and by seeking them, constantly partake of them. Through our Lord.
