22nd Sunday after Pentecost

20th - 27th of October 2024

Feast of Christ the King – Patronal Feast of the ICKSP

Next Sunday, 27th October

A second collection will be held at both Sunday Masses to support the ICKSP Seminary at Gricigliano, in Italy. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

Do we not read throughout the Scriptures that Christ is the King? He it is that shall come out of Jacob to rule, who has been set by the Father as king over Sion, his holy mount, and shall have the Gentiles for his inheritance, and the utmost parts of the earth for his possession. In the nuptial hymn, where the future King of Israel is hailed as a most rich and powerful monarch, we read: "Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; the sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre of righteousness." [...] Here it is foretold that his kingdom will have no limits, and will be enriched with justice and peace: "in his days shall justice spring up, and abundance of peace...And he shall rule from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth."

–Pope Pius XI, encyclical letter Quas Primas (1925)

Those who attend Mass in a church or chapel of the ICKSP may obtain a plenary indulgence on the Feast:

A plenary indulgence can be gained only once a day. In order to obtain it, the faithful must, in addition to being in the state of grace: (1) have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin; (2) have sacramentally confessed their sins; (3) receive the Holy Eucharist (it is certainly better to receive it while participating in Holy Mass, but for the indulgence only Holy Communion is required); (4) pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff. <https://www.ewtn.com/catholicism/devotions/conditions-13362>

KIM LEADBEATER'S ASSISTED SUICIDE BILL – date for the second reading Friday 29th November

Both His Eminence Cardinal Nichols Archbishop of Westminster and the Most Reverend Mark Davis Bishop of Shrewsbury, have written pastoral letters urging us to contact our MPS urgently to oppose this bill. The letters can be read in full:- <https://www.cbcew.org.uk/vincent-nichols/>

<https://www.dioceseofshrewsbury.org/on-the-threat-of-assisted-suicide-a-pastoral-letter-from-bishop-davies/>

Let us pray that a decisive rejection of the proposal being placed before Parliament will lead society to affirm the value of human life anew, by devoting ourselves more generously to the support of the aged; to the relief of suffering and to truly assisting those at the end of their lives. I ask you not to delay in contacting your Member of Parliament.

United with you in this witness to the Gospel of Life,

+ Mark

Bishop of Shrewsbury

WELCOME to baby Michael Reddin who was baptized yesterday.

TWENTY- SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT Psalm 129: 3-4

If Thou shalt observe iniquities, O Lord, Lord, who shall endure it? For with Thee is propitiation, O God of Israel. Ps. From the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT

O God, our refuge and our strength, give ear to the holy prayers of Thy Church, and grant, that what we ask with faith, we may effectually obtain. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE Philippians 1: 6-11

Brethren, we are confident of this very thing, that He Who hath begun a good work in you, will perfect it unto the day of Christ Jesus. As it is meet for me to think this for you all: for that I have you in my heart and that, in my bands, and in the defense and confirmation of the Gospel, you are all partakers of my joy. For God is my witness, how I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. And this I pray, that your charity may more and more abound in knowledge and in all understanding that you may approve the better things, that you may be sincere and without offense unto the day of Christ, filled with the fruits of justice, through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

GRADUAL Psalm 132: 1-2

Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. V. It is like the precious ointment on the head, that ran down upon the beard, the beard of Aaron.

ALLELUIA Alleluia, alleluia. V. Let them that fear the Lord, hope in Him; He is their helper and their protector. Alleluia.

GOSPEL Matthew 22: 15-21

At that time, the Pharisees went and consulted among themselves, how to ensnare Jesus in His speech. And they sent to Him their disciples, with the Herodians, Saying: Master, we know that Thou art a true speaker, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest Thou for any man, for Thou dost not regard the person of men. Tell us therefore, what dost Thou think? Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? But Jesus knowing their wickedness, said: Why do you tempt Me, you hypocrites? Show Me the coin of the tribute. And they offered Him a penny. And Jesus saith to them: Whose image and superscription is this? They say to Him: Caesar's. Then He saith to them: Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's.

OFFERTORY Esther 14: 12,13

Remember me, O Lord, Thou Who rulest above all power; and give a well-ordered speech in my mouth, that my words may be pleasing in the sight of the prince.

SECRET

Grant unto us, O merciful God, that this saving oblation may unceasingly free us from our own guilty deeds, and keep us from all things that may hurt us. Through our Lord.

COMMUNION Psalm 118: 81, 84, 86

I have cried, for Thou, O God, hast heard me: O incline Thine ear unto me, and hear my words.

POSTCOMMUNION

We have received, O Lord, the gifts of this sacred Mystery, and humbly beseech Thee: that what Thou hast bidden us to do in memory of Thee may avail us in our weak- ness. Who livest and reignest.

“We,” says St. Augustine, “are the coins of God stamped with His image and God demands the return of His coins as Caesar did the return of his.” And St. Jerome adds: “let us give to Caesar the money which bears his inscription, since we cannot do otherwise, but let us give ourselves freely and of our own accord to God, for what our soul bears is the glorious imprint of the face of God and not the more or less majestic head of an emperor.” Boossuet says: “This image will one day pass again through the hands and before the eyes of Jesus Christ, and some day He will look at us and say: ‘Whose image and inscription is this?’ And the very depth of our being will answer : ‘God’s.’” “It is for Him that we were made and we must bear His stamp upon us.”

St Andrew's Missal 1945
