

TWENTY FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

(Fourth Sunday remaining after Epiphany)

Why are you fearful, O ye of little faith?

INTROIT Jeremiah 29 : 11, 12, 14

The Lord saith: I think thoughts of peace, and not of affliction: you shall call upon Me, and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places. Psalm. Lord, Thou hast blessed Thy land: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — The Lord saith ...

COLLECT

O God, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature, we cannot stand fast: grant us health of mind and of body, that what we suffer for our sins, we may overcome by Thy help. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son ...

EPISTLE Romans 13 : 8 – 10

Brethren: Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth his neighbour, hath fulfilled the law. For Thou shalt not commit adultery: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steal: Thou shalt not bear false witness: Thou shalt not covet: and if there be any other commandment, it is comprised in this word: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. The love of our neighbour worketh no evil. Love therefore is the fulfilling of the law.

GRADUAL Psalm 43 : 8 – 9

Thou hast saved us, O Lord, from them that afflict us: and hast put them to shame that hate us. In God we will glory all the day long: and in Thy Name we will give praise for ever

ALLELUIA Ps. 129:1, 2.

Alleluia, alleluia. Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Alleluia.

GOSPEL Matthew 8 : 23 – 27

At that time, when Jesus entered into the boat, His disciples followed Him: and behold a great tempest arose in the sea, so that the boat was covered with waves, but He was asleep. And His disciples came to Him, and awaked Him, saying: Lord, save us, we perish. And Jesus saith to them: Why are you fearful, O ye of little faith? Then rising up He commanded the winds and the sea, and there came a great calm. But the men wondered, saying: What manner of man is this, for the winds and the sea obey Him?

OFFERTORY Psalm 129 : 1, 2

Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord.

SECRET

Grant, we beseech Thee, almighty God, that the offering of the gifts of this Sacrifice, may ever cleanse us and in our frailty protect us from all evil. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son ...

COMMUNION Mark 11 : 24

Amen I say to you, whatsoever you ask when you pray, believe that you shall receive and it shall be done to you.

POSTCOMMUNION

May Thy gifts, O Lord, detach us from earthly pleasures: and ever renew us with heavenly nourishment. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

While the Gospel show clearly Jesus' divinity and demands on our part an ever greater faith in His divine power, the Collects of this Sunday emphasise our human weakness; they make us implore the help which we need to remain what we ought to be, to sustain our supernatural life and purify us from sin. In the apostles' boat Jesus, by a gesture of His sovereign power, calms the furious waves; His presence in our lives brings with it peace and security.

The Epistle continues to explain St. Paul's teaching on the duties of a Christian. Towards our neighbour they are all contained in the one word, charity; we cannot really love others without keeping the commandments which regulate our relations with them; love of our neighbour means fulfilling the whole of the Law.

24th Sunday after Pentecost

3rd November to 10th November 2024

November: The Four Last Things

During this month, the church invites us to meditate upon the four last things: death, judgement, hell and heaven. It is the end of the liturgical year and a perfect time to reflect on time and eternity in view of the Second Coming of Our Lord.

To contemporary man, the remembrance of death—Memento mori—seems like an unnecessary and gloomy consideration. However, it is essential to our Christian spiritual life, which looks beyond the fleeting joys of the present to eternal beatitude with God. Through the cross, Christ overcame death. Meditation on the Passion of Our Lord and upon the Four Last Things is the best means to take on the sufferings and trials of this life—including illness and death.

As you know, we will be continuing the tradition of the blessing of graves. Don't forget that from the 1st to 8th November the church offers a plenary indulgence, applicable to the souls in purgatory, to those who go to a cemetery to pray for the faithful departed. Let us be assiduous in this spiritual work of mercy, with the certitude that the suffering souls will certainly seek to recompense our charity when they appear in the presence of God.

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES after Sunday 10:30am Mass. There will be free craft activities once a month after Mass the next one being next Sunday 10th November. Can you please contact Caroline Harrison if your child/children will be attending. Thank you. cmharrison71@gmail.com

ST PHILOMENA'S WAY

The Diocese of Shrewsbury is promoting a new pilgrimage route called St Philomena's Way as part of a national project to establish walking pilgrimage routes in each of the 22 Catholic dioceses of England and Wales.

The Pilgrim Ways: Hearts in Search of God project aims to provide a pilgrimage route in each of the dioceses, one which starts at the cathedral of the relevant diocese and then ends at a shrine within the same diocese.

St Philomena's Way starts from the Cathedral of Our Lady Help of Christians & Saint Peter of Alcantara in Shrewsbury and ends here at the Shrine Church of Ss Peter & Paul and St Philomena in New Brighton. For more information on Pilgrim Ways: Hearts in Search of God see: <https://www.pilgrimways.org.uk/shrewsbury>

£30 was collected last week in donations from refreshments after the 10.30 Mass.

November's collection will be for Aid to the Church in Need. Thank you.
