25th Sunday after Pentecost

10th November to 17th November 2024

Remembrance Sunday

This week we celebrate Remembrance Sunday with the Anniversary Requiem Mass. It is an opportunity to continue our meditation on the Last Things, and to exercise one of the spiritual works of mercy, praying for the dead. This is the best way for us to repay the debt of gratitude owed to them.

Love of country is linked to the virtue of piety. Today, it is fashionable to denigrate everything which came before us, but despite the faults and sins of our ancestors, we must recognize that so many of the goods we experience have been handed down to us, without any merit on our part.

In the struggles of the present time, it is also immensely useful to remember the suffering of previous generations. Considering those who persevered under the extreme conditions of war, we can put our own problems into perspective. The Hail Holy Queen reminds us that this life is a vale of tears—the service members we honour passed through that vale with admirable courage and virtue.

Finally, as we celebrate the Requiem Mass, we invite you to pay close attention to the particularities of this beautiful liturgy. At the beginning of the Mass, Psalm 42 which is an expression of joy, is suppressed, rendering the Mass more austere. The exuberant chant of the alleluia is replaced with a tract, as in Lent. Furthermore, the magnificent piece known as the Dies Irae is added prior to the Gospel, in the form of a Sequence.

Throughout the liturgy, many blessings normally given are removed: the priest makes the sign of the cross over the Missal and not himself at the Introit, there is no blessing for the minister reading the epistle and gospel, likewise the water at the offertory and the servants after Mass do not receive the customary benediction—all blessings are reserved to the dead. This is also why the priest will omit the sign of the cross over the people immediately before the Last Gospel.

At the Agnus Dei, the words dona nobis pacem are replaced with dona eis requiem (sempiternam). In the same way, the Ite Missa est is replaced with Requiescant in pace. Following the High Mass, the ceremony of the absolution will take place. A catafalque is constructed in front of the sanctuary, representing the faithful departed. The choir sings the Libera me and the dead are blessed with the sacramentals of holy water and incense, with prayers for their release from the punishments of purgatory. Requiem aeternam dona eis Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis!

Adoration for Life: The Bishops of England and Wales will be praying a holy hour before the Blessed Sacrament this Wednesday, 13th November at 5:30pm to pray for the defeat of the bill to legalise assisted suicide. Join us at the Dome during our normal evening hours to pray for this very important intention!

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES after Sunday 10:30am Mass. There will be free craft activities once a month after Mass- the next one being today Sunday 10th November. Can you please contact Caroline Harrison if your child/children will be attending . Thank you. cmharrison71@gmail.com

£6.75 was collected last week in donations from refreshments after the 10.30 Mass.

November's collection will be for Aid to the Church in Need. Thank you.

Mass for the Dead on the Anniversary Day of the Death or Burial

INTROIT 4 Esdr. 2 : 34, 35

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord; and may perpetual light shine upon them. Psalm. A hymn, O God, becometh Thee in Sion; and a vow shall be paid to Thee in Jerusalem: hear my prayer; all flesh shall come to Thee. — Eternal rest ...

COLLECT

O God, the Lord of forgiveness: grant to the soul of Thy servant N. (or handmaid N. or to the souls of Thy servants and hand- maids), the anniversary of whose burial we are keeping, a place of refreshment, the happiness of rest and the glory of light. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee ...

EPISTLE II Machabees 12 : 43 – 46

In those days: The most valiant man Judas, making a gathering, sent twelve thousand drachmas of silver to Jerusalem for sacrifice to be offered for the sins of the dead, thinking well and religiously concerning the resurrection (for if he had not hoped that they that were slain should rise again, it would have seemed superfluous and vain to pray for the dead); and because he considered that they who had fallen asleep with godliness, had great grace laid up for them. It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins.

GRADUAL 4 Esdr. 2 : 34, 35

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord; and may perpetual light shine upon them. (Ps. 111:7.) The just shall be in everlasting remembrance; he shall not fear the evil hearing.

TRACT

Absolve, O Lord, the souls of all the faithful departed from every bond of sin. And by the help of Thy grace may they be enabled to escape the avenging judgment. And enjoy the bliss of everlasting light.

SEQUENCE

The day of wrath, that awful day, shall reduce the world to ashes, as David and the Sibyl prophesied. * How great will be the terror, when the Judge shall come to examine all things rigorously! * The trumpet, with astounding blast, echoing over the sepulchres of the whole world, shall summon all before the throne. * Death and nature will stand aghast, when the creature shall rise again, to answer before his Judge. * The written book shall be brought forth, containing all for which the world must be judged. * When, therefore, the Judge shall be seated, whatsoever is hidden shall be brought to light; nought shall remain unpunished. * What then shall I, unhappy man, allege? Whom shall I invoke as protector? when even the just shall hardly be secure. * O King of awful majesty, who of Thy free gift savest them that are to be saved, save me, O fount of mercy! Remember, O loving Jesus, 'twas for my sake Thou camest on earth: let me not, then, be lost on that day. * Seeking me Thou satest weary; Thou redeemedst me by dying on the cross: let not such suffering be all in vain. * O righteous Awarder of punishment, grant me the gift of pardon before the reckoningday. * I groan as one guilty, while I blush for my sins: Oh! spare Thy suppliant, my God! * Thou didst absolve Mary Magdalen, and didst hear the prayer of the thief: to me, then, Thou hast also given hope. * My prayers deserve not to be heard; but Thou art good: grant, in Thy kindness, that I may not burn in the unquenchable fire. * Give me a place among Thy sheep, separating me from the goats and setting me on Thy right hand. * When the reprobate, covered with confusion, shall have been sentenced to the cruel flames, call me with the blessed. * Prostrate in supplication I implore Thee, with a heart contrite as though crushed to ashes; Oh!

have a care of my last hour! * A mournful day that day shall be, when from the dust shall arise, * Guilty man, that he may be judged; spare him, then, O God! * O tender Lord Jesus, give them eternal rest. Amen.

GOSPEL John 6 : 37 – 40

At that time: Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews, All that the Father giveth Me shall come to Me; and him that cometh to Me I will not cast out: because I came down from heaven, not to do Mine own will, but the will of Him who sent Me. Now this is the will of the Father who sent Me, that of all that He hath given Me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again in the last day; and this is the will of My Father that sent Me, that everyone who seeth the Son, and believeth in Him, may have life everlasting; and I will raise Him up in the last day.

OFFERTORY

O Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory, deliver the souls of all the faithful departed from the pains of hell and from the bottomless pit: deliver them from the lion's mouth, that hell swallow them not up, that they fall not into darkness, but let the standard-bearer holy Michael lead them into that holy light; which Thou didst promise of old to Abraham and to his seed. We offer to Thee, O Lord, sacrifices and prayers: do Thou receive them in behalf of those souls of whom we make memorial this day. Grant them, O Lord, to pass from death to that life, which thou didst promise of old to Abraham and to his seed.

SECRET

Be favorable, O Lord, to our pleadings for the soul of Thy servant N. (or handmaid N., or the souls of Thy faithful servants and handmaids) whose anniversary is being celebrated today: for whom we offer the sacrifice of praise: that Thou wouldst vouchsafe to grant him (her or them) fellowship with Thy Saints. Through our Lord Jesus Christ ...

PREFACE OF THE DEAD

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to Thee, holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God, through Christ our Lord: in whom the hope of a blessed resurrection hath beamed upon us: so that those who are saddened by the certainty of dying may be consoled by the promise of a future deathless life. For to Thy faithful people, Lord, life is changed, not taken away; and when the home of this earthly sojourn is dissolved, an eternal dwelling is made ready in heaven. And therefore with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominations, and with all the hosts of the heavenly army, we sing a hymn to Thy praise, evermore saying: — Sanctus.

COMMUNION 4 Esdr. 2 : 35, 34

May light eternal shine upon them, O Lord, * With Thy Saints for evermore, for Thou art gracious. V. Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord; and may perpetual light shine upon them: * With Thy Saints for evermore, for Thou art gracious.

POSTCOMMUNION

Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that the soul of Thy servant N. (handmaid N. or the souls of Thy servants and handmaids), the anniversary of whose burial we are keeping, may be cleansed by this Sacrifice and may obtain both pardon and eternal rest. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost ...
