Dear Faithful,

Next Sunday will be the time to say "goodbye" to our candidates of this scholastic year.
Good winds gentlemen, "duc in altum", persevere with courage.

Here we will continue to pray for you with fervour, the path of the Priesthood requires sacrifice and renunciation. May Our Lady of the Yes help you to say your daily fiat.
Our canonical vocation will bring you many graces and joys if this is the will of God.
Thank you for all that you have done with us this year.

We place you under the gentle patronage of our Immaculate Queen, St. Benedict, St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Francis de Sales, but also under the protection of St. Walburga, St. Thomas of Canterbury and the English Martyrs.

I would like to take advantage of this editorial to wish our dear Canon Post a happy holiday with his family. Thank you dear confrere for your work and your generosity throughout this scholastic year, greet your parents for us.

Finally, having celebrated 1 year of Priesthood, Canon Ducret is no longer restricted in his ministry to the confessional, all can address him as to the other canons.

God bless you all!

TRANSLATION OF THE EPISTLE AND GOSPEL

Fourth Sunday After Pentecost

Lesson

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Rom 8:18-23

Brethren: I reckon that the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us. For the eager longing of creation awaits the revelation of the sons of God. For creation was made subject to vanity - not by its own will but by reason of Him Who made it subject - in hope, because creation itself also will be delivered from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the sons of God. For we know that all creation groans and travails in pain until now. And not only it, but we ourselves also who have the first-fruits of the Spirit - we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption as sons of God, the redemption of our body, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

Continuation ✠ of the Holy Gospel according to Luke

R. Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

Luke 5:1-11

At that time, while the crowds were pressing upon Jesus to hear the word of God, He was standing by Lake Genesareth. And He saw two boats moored by the lake, but the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. And getting into one of the boats, the one that was Simon's, He asked him to put out a little from the land. And sitting down, He began to teach the crowds from the boat. But when He had ceased speaking, He said to Simon, Put out into the deep, and lower your nets for a catch. And Simon answered and said to Him, Master, the whole night through we have toiled and have taken nothing; but at Your word I will lower the net. And when they had done so, they enclosed a great number of fishes, but their net was breaking. And they beckoned to their comrades in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish they had made; and so were also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Do not be afraid; henceforth you shall catch men. And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all and followed Him.

R. Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

S. By the words of the Gospel may our sins be blotted out.
