Dearly beloved faithful,

The liturgical week to come is very rich indeed! Today, we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King with a procession following the Solemn Mass.

Monday is the Vigil of All Saints. Please join us at 5:30pm for Solemn First Vespers, followed by a costume party for the children.

On Tuesday, there will be an additional 6pm Solemn Mass at Saint Walburge's. Remember that All Saints' Day is a holyday of obligation. All Masses during this week will be at Saint Walburge's Church.

Wednesday is All Souls' Day. In addition to the 8:30am and 12 noon Masses, there will be two other public Masses with Holy Communion for the faithful at 7am and 6pm (Solemn). Priests are given the opportunity to celebrate three Masses on this day for the sake of the suffering souls in purgatory. Thus, there will also be private Masses at 7:30, 9, 9:30, 10 and 12:30. Holy Communion will not be given at these Masses, but you are most welcome to attend and pray for your loved ones!

In Christ the King,
Canon Post

TRANSLATION OF THE EPISTLE AND GOSPEL

Feast of Christ the King

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Colossians

Col 1:12-20.

Brethren: We give thanks to God the Father Who has made us worthy to share the lot of the saints in light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness, and transferred us into the kingdom of His beloved Son, in Whom we have our redemption through His blood, the remission of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature. For in Him were created all things in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether Thrones, or Dominations, or Principalities, or Powers. All things have been created through and unto Him, and He is before all creatures, and in Him all things hold together. Again, He is the head of the body, the Church; He, Who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the first place. For it has pleased God the Father that in Him all fullness should dwell and that through Him He should reconcile to Himself all things, whether on the earth or in the heavens, making peace through the blood of His Cross, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Continuation ☩ of the Holy Gospel according to John

R. Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

John 18:33-37

At that time, Pilate said to Jesus, Are You the King of the Jews? Jesus answered, Do you say this of yourself, or have others told you of Me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Your own people and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What have You done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My followers would certainly have fought that I might not be delivered to the Hebrews. But, as it is, My kingdom is not from here. Pilate therefore said to Him, You are then a King? Jesus answered, You say it: I am a King. This is why I was born, and why I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice.
