REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

Editorial: by Rev. Canon Post

Dearly beloved faithful,

The Requiem Mass on Sunday is a rare indulgent that has been provided for England. Let us take this opportunity to pray with fervour for the souls of the faithful departed and our fallen heroes. May we also further discover the beauty and power of the Requiem Mass.

As always, we have many events coming up. Please get involved! We are so grateful for our many volunteers who make it all possible. Remember that events also provide a low-stakes opportunity to introduce new people to our community. If they see friends and families joined together in joy and Christian charity, they will be attracted to our shrines. May all those who come to us find the peace of Christ!

In Christ the King,
Canon Post

TRANSLATION OF THE EPISTLE AND GOSPEL

Remembrance Sunday

Lesson from the second book of Machabees

2 Mach. 12:43-46

In those days: The most valiant man Judas, making a gathering, sent twelve thousand drachmas of silver to Jerusalem for sacrifice to be offered for the sins of the dead, thinking well and religiously concerning the resurrection, for if he had not hoped that they that were slain should rise again, it would have seemed superfluous and vain to pray for the dead; and because he considered that they who had fallen asleep with godliness, had great grace laid up for them. It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins.

Continuation ☩ of the Holy Gospel according to John

John 6:37-40

At that time, Jesus said to the multitude of the Jews, All that the Father gives to Me shall come to Me, and him who comes to Me I will not cast out. For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him Who sent Me. Now this is the will of Him Who sent Me, the Father, that I should lose nothing of what He has given Me, but that I should raise it up on the last day. For this is the will of My Father Who sent Me, that whoever beholds the Son, and believes in Him, shall have everlasting life, and I will raise him up on the last day.
