Dear Friends,

Since 1854, the church of Saint Walburge has dominated the Preston landscape. Situated on the site of a mediaeval leper hospital, we have a long tradition of hospitality and Christian charity.

Our spire is iconic in the Preston skyline, but beyond this rich and dense history, St Walburge's is a vibrant and, thank God, joyful community.

Thank you to all our visitors this weekend for the honour and pleasure of your visits. Come and see us during the year; Gregorian chant is particularly renowned here, bringing peace and grace to our souls.

We are also very grateful for our excellent relationship with our civic authorities and the pastoral care of our Bishop and Dean.

Don't hesitate to join our volunteers in maintaining this church which is a church for all Prestonians and Lancashire!

If you would also like to take part in our fundraising efforts to preserve this heritage for future generations, you are also very welcome!

God bless you,
Your Rector

TRANSLATION OF THE EPISTLE AND GOSPEL

Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Galatians

Gal 5:25-26; 6:1-10

Brethren: If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us also walk. Let us not become desirous of vainglory, provoking one another, envying one another. Brethren, even if a person is caught doing something wrong, you who are spiritual instruct such a one in a spirit of meekness, considering yourself, lest you also be tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks himself to be something, whereas he is nothing, he deceives himself. But let everyone test his own work, and so he will have glory in himself only, and not in comparison with another. For each one will bear his own burden. And let him who is instructed in the word share all good things with his teacher. Be not deceived, God is not mocked. For what a man sows in the flesh, from the flesh also will reap corruption. But he who sows in the spirit, from the spirit will reap life everlasting. And in doing good let us not grow tired; for in due time we shall reap if we do not relax. Therefore, while we have time, let us do good to all men, but especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Continuation of the Holy Gospel according to Luke

Saint Luke 7:11-16

At that time, Jesus went to a town called Naim; and His disciples and a large crowd went with Him. And as He drew near the gate of the town, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large gathering from the town was with her. And the Lord, seeing her, had compassion on her, and said to her, "Do not weep." And He went up and touched the stretcher; and the bearers stood still. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." And he who was dead, sat up, and began to speak. And He gave him to his mother. But fear seized upon all, and they began to glorify God, saying, "A great prophet has risen among us, and God has visited His people."
