My dear flock,

Adveniat regnum tuum! I wish you all a wonderful Feast of Christ the King, and may the Kingdom of Our Lord spread ever more widely over us, our families, your towns and our country, and over the whole world.

Let us remember that 27 October 2023 marked 56 years since the Abortion Act received Royal Assent in 1967. Since then, a staggering 10,256,050 unborn babies have lost their lives to abortion across England, Wales and Scotland. Do not give up your prayers and your determination, thank you to every support you can give to Life Charity UK.

I am celebrating a novena for all the deceased from our pious lists at the end of November, and the offerings you contribute for it will help pay for this community effort to keep you a little warmer.

The total cost of the heated pews for St Walburge's is £25,600, half of which has been paid for by a private contribution, leaving £12,800 to be paid by us. Thank you to our benefactors who helped us raise £2,852 already, leaving only £9,948 left to pay. This system was recommended to us by specialists at the Bishops' Conference. I hope you will be happy with it. It is very efficient and economical to use.

Thank you so much for your donations of coal. We have not started regular heating in the presbytery yet for financial reasons, so your fuel for our little fires makes a difference! You are amazing! Once again a very happy feast of Christ the King. God bless you all!

Yours in Christ the King,
The Rector

TRANSLATION OF THE EPISTLE AND GOSPEL

Feast of Christ the King

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Colossians Col 1:12-20.

Brethren: We give thanks to God the Father Who has made us worthy to share the lot of the saints in light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness, and transferred us into the kingdom of His beloved Son, in Whom we have our redemption through His blood, the remission of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature. For in Him were created all things in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether Thrones, or Dominations, or Principalities, or Powers. All things have been created through and unto Him, and He is before all creatures, and in Him all things hold together. Again, He is the head of the body, the Church; He, Who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the first place. For it has pleased God the Father that in Him all fullness should dwell and that through Him He should reconcile to Himself all things, whether on the earth or in the heavens, making peace through the blood of His Cross, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Continuation * of the Holy Gospel according to John John 18:33-37

At that time, Pilate said to Jesus, Are You the King of the Jews? Jesus answered, Do you say this of yourself, or have others told you of Me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Your own people and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What have You done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My followers would certainly have fought that I might not be delivered to the Hebrews. But, as it is, My kingdom is not from here. Pilate therefore said to Him, You are then a King? Jesus answered, You say it: I am a King. This is why I was born, and why I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice.

Our prayer intentions this week:
