My dear friends

I've always been very impressed by Remembrance Sunday. One of the virtues and glories of the British people is their sense of remembrance and duty. On the continent, there is nothing like it. Here, poppies bloom everywhere, reminding us of the purple fields of wheat in Flanders that became fields of mud. It is vital to keep this memory alive, especially in this individualistic, global society. Our national identity depends on our memory.

We pray this Sunday for our armed forces, for the living and the dead of our forces, and for the leader of our armed forces, His Majesty the King.

At St Walburge's we paid a high price, as the bronze panels of our war memorial altar testify.

Today, war continues to sow its seeds of violence, blood, fear and tears.

I wanted to make special mention of Armenia, which is being attacked and is dying in the midst of general indifference. It is one of the oldest Christian nations in Europe.

I would also like to mention the courageous people of Nigeria, who are still under constant threat.

Muslim extremists kill Christians, nuns and priests every day in this brotherly country. Let us pray for peace and may the Kingdom of the Immaculate Heart of Mary come! God bless you, Your Rector

Remembrance Sunday

Lesson from the book of Revelation

Apoc 14:13

In those days, I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth. Yes, says the Spirit, let them rest from their labors, for their works follow them.

Continuation ☩ of the Holy Gospel according to John

John 6:51-55

At that time, Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews, I am the living bread that has come down from heaven. If anyone eat of this bread he shall live forever; and the bread that I will give is My Flesh for the life of the world. The Jews on that account argued with one another, saying, How can this man give us His Flesh to eat? Jesus therefore said to them, Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the Flesh of the Son of Man, and drink His Blood, you shall not have life in you. He who eats My Flesh and drinks My Blood has life everlasting and I will raise him up on the last day.

Psalm CXXIX

For the Poor Souls

Out of the depths I have cried to thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Let thy ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

If thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities: Lord, who shall stand it? For with thee there is merciful forgiveness: and by reason of thy law, I have waited for thee, O Lord.

My soul hath relied on his word:

My soul hath hoped in the Lord.

From the morning watch even until night, let Israel hope in the Lord. Because with the Lord there is mercy: and with him plentiful redemption. And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord...
