FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Dearly beloved faithful,

With the conclusion of all of the recent solemnities, this week we come to the first of a long series of “green Sundays”, taking us all the way to the end of the liturgical year and Advent.

Each of the Sundays throughout the year contains many important lessons for our spiritual life. An excellent practice is to read the Gospel and Epistle before the Mass, or to meditate upon them during the week. We could also read the verses of scripture before and after the text to better understand their context. Let us imitate the eagerness of the people in today’s Gospel passage who “were pressing upon Jesus to hear the word of God.”

This Sunday, the Sister Adorers are absent in order to sing the Mass in Wigan. It is an occasion for us to give thanks for the gift of their presence every other week. We might also take the time to pray for the other apostolates of our Institute throughout England, as well as our neighbouring parishes of Preston and the Diocese of Lancashire.

Remember! Next Sunday is our Summer Fair, following the 10:30 Mass. We hope to see you all there!

In the Heart of Jesus,
Canon Post

TRANSLATION OF THE EPISTLE AND GOSPEL

Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Rom 8:18-23

Brethren: I reckon that the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us. For the eager longing of creation awaits the revelation of the sons of God. For creation was made subject to vanity - not by its own will but by reason of Him Who made it subject - in hope, because creation itself also will be delivered from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the sons of God. For we know that all creation groans and travails in pain until now. And not only it, but we ourselves also who have the first-fruits of the Spirit - we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption as sons of God, the redemption of our body, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Continuation + of the Holy Gospel according to Luke

Luke 5:1-11

At that time, while the crowds were pressing upon Jesus to hear the word of God, He was standing by Lake Genesareth. And He saw two boats moored by the lake, but the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. And getting into one of the boats, the one that was Simon's, He asked him to put out a little from the land. And sitting down, He began to teach the crowds from the boat. But when He had ceased speaking, He said to Simon, Put out into the deep, and lower your nets for a catch. And Simon answered and said to Him, Master, the whole night through we have toiled and have taken nothing; but at Your word I will lower the net. And when they had done so, they enclosed a great number of fishes, but their net was breaking. And they beckoned to their comrades in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish they had made; and so were also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Do not be afraid; henceforth you shall catch men. And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all and followed Him.

Prayer Intentions

- *For Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life

Liturgy Corner:

Prayers at Benediction of the

Blessed Sacrament

When the Blessed Sacrament is exposed, a Eucharistic hymn such as Ave Verum or Panis Angelicus is sung. In a solemn benediction, a hymn and prayer are chanted to the Blessed Virgin and for the intentions of the Pope. In England, this is followed by the prayer to Our Lady for the conversion of our nation and unity with the Church of Rome.

The service concludes with the Tantum Ergo, the Benediction itself, the Divine Praises and a final Eucharistic Hymn.

During the week, we recite the Litany of St Joseph to pray for the restoration of our Shrine.
