HOLY ROSARY

Dear friends of the Shrine

Time flies! It is already 6 days since the month of October began. The first Sunday of October is traditionally dedicated to the Solemnity of the Most Holy Rosary of our Blessed Mother in Heaven. We commemorate today the military battles won by the Christians' armies in Lepanto (1571) and in Hungary (1716), but also the invisible and most important input of all the Christian world at that time, through the prayers of the Holy Rosary. They are the one who won the real battle of their heart, kneeling in front of their family oratory, and begging from Our Mother in Heaven, the grace of peace for their soul, and for the world at war.

More than a miraculous victory, we are reminded today that the prayer of the Holy Rosary can obtain anything from Her, if we ask it faithfully and with confidence. Countless times, when She visited us on Earth in Lourdes, La Salette, Fatima or Aquila, She unceasingly repeated two things: penance, and prayer of the Most Holy Rosary.

“Let us all then be earnest in honouring the most holy Mother of God in this form which she liketh so well, that even as the entreaties of Christ's faithful people, approaching her in her Garden of Roses, have so often won her to scatter and destroy their earthly foes, so she may gain for them the victory over their hellish foes likewise. (Roman Breviary, 6th lesson at Matins, for the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary)”

Canon Vianney Poucin de Wouilt

TRANSLATION OF THE EPISTLE AND GOSPEL

Holy Rosary of Our Lady

Lesson from the book of Proverbs

Prov 8:22-24, 32-35.

The Lord begot me, the firstborn of His ways, the forerunner of His prodigies of long ago; from of old I was poured forth, at the first, before the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth. So now, O children, listen to me; happy those who keep my ways. Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not. Happy the man who obeys me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at my doorposts; for he who finds me finds life, and wins favor from the Lord.

Continuation + of the Holy Gospel according to Luke

Luke 1:26-38

At that time, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary. And when the angel had come to her, he said, Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women. When she had heard him she was troubled at his word, and kept pondering what manner of greeting this might be. And the angel said to her, Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found grace with God. Behold, you shall conceive in your womb and shall bring forth a Son; and you shall call His name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of David His father, and He shall be king over the house of Jacob forever; and of His kingdom there shall be no end. But Mary said to the angel, How shall this happen, since I do not know man? And the angel answered and said to her, The Holy Spirit shall come upon you, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow you; and therefore the Holy One to be born shall be called the Son of God. And behold, Elizabeth your kinswoman also has conceived a son in her old age, and she who was called barren is now in her sixth month; for nothing shall be impossible with God. But Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it done to me according to your word.

Diocese of Lancaster : Centenary Prayer

God our Father, we thank you for all the graces and blessings You have bestowed on our Diocese since its foundation one hundred years ago on ground made fertile by the blood of the martyrs. Nourished by your Son, Jesus Christ, in Word and Sacraments, and led by your Holy Spirit, may we move forward with hope and trust, helping future generations to discover the "pearl of great price" which will bring them eternal life. And when time shall be no more, may our Diocese rejoice as the "mother of countless children", and be given her place in heavenly glory. This we ask of you who live and reign for ever and ever. Amen.

Our Lady of Lourdes, pray for us.

St Cuthbert, pray for us.

Holy Martyrs of our Diocese, pray for us.
