Dear faithful of St. Walbuge's and friends in Christ the King, My time here in Preston has been all too brief! It was a great grace and privilege to have been invited to such a warm, radiant apostolate of our dear Institute. I have been edified by your charity – discreet, yet resolutely proper – and by your example of unity and mutual support as a shrine. As Divine Providence calls me to work in another place, I will nevertheless cherish my time here among you all, and pray for the apostolate, already mature in yielded fruit. I sincerely thank Canon Cristofoli and Canon Heppelle for having me here and making me feel quite at home. Hopefully the Good Lord will afford me an opportunity to return soon!

Please pray for your priests, for the seminarians, and for the candidates, who will in an important way determine the future of the Catholic Church.

Farewell for now, in Christo Rege,
Canon Julian Malinowski

TRANSLATION OF THE EPISTLE AND GOSPEL

Requiem Mass

Epistle from the book of Macchabees 2 Mach. 12:43-46

In those days: The most valiant man Judas, making a gathering, sent twelve thousand drachmas of silver to Jerusalem for sacrifice to be offered for the sins of the dead, thinking well and religiously concerning the resurrection, for if he had not hoped that they that were slain should rise again, it would have seemed superfluous and vain to pray for the dead; and because he considered that they who had fallen asleep with godliness, had great grace laid up for them. It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins.

Holy Gospel according to St John John 6:37-40

At that time, Jesus said to the multitude of the Jews, All that the Father gives to Me shall come to Me, and him who comes to Me I will not cast out. For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him Who sent Me. Now this is the will of Him Who sent Me, the Father, that I should lose nothing of what He has given Me, but that I should raise it up on the last day. For this is the will of My Father Who sent Me, that whoever beholds the Son, and believes in Him, shall have everlasting life, and I will raise him up on the last day.
