

SAINT BENEDICT'S ACADEMY

"Ora et Labora"

September MCMXIX

What does the St Benedict's satchel have to say for itself?

One could describe Saint Benedict's as being the 19 satchels of the children, filled with their work... and that is not counting the satchels of our teachers, full of their lessons!

What is it then, that one would find if one were to open the satchel of a student at Saint Benedict's?

- A very strong Catholic faith, in which God is the centre, the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end of all things.*
- Praying families, committed to home-schooling, leading to a complete coherence between their faith and the lessons the children receive, their lives and moral values.*
- A quality teaching, combining the best of the new with traditional pedagogical methods proved through centuries of use.*
- Teachers, both employed and volunteers, who are completely dedicated to the children.*
- The daily presence of priests, seminarians and religious at the academy.*

But one would also find in the satchels at Saint Benedict's all the friendship and gratitude which we have for our benefactors: we still need you!

Latin class. Dom Prosper Gueranger tells us: "Hatred for the Latin language is inborn in the heart of all the enemies of Rome!"

We are grateful to the Sisters Adorers who teach Catechism, French & Gregorian Chant.

Maths class. Our small class numbers allow each pupil to have more individual attention.

Morning break. St Francis de Sales says: "A sad saint is a sorry saint!"

Thanks to your previous generosity, the classrooms have been refurbished.
