

ANNO DOMINI 2020

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Front Cover: First Mass celebrated by Canon Turner in St. Peter's Basilica, with Canon Leboq and altar servers from our apostolates in Ireland.

Below: His Eminence Robert Cardinal Sarah, Prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, visits Our Lady of Lourdes Parish in Libreville, along with Archbishop Basile Mvé Engone, archbishop of the city, Bishop Matthieu Madéga Lebouakehan, bishop of Mouila, and Canons Bergerot and Bivouli.

Dear Friends,

As every year, I am most pleased to offer you this calendar. By recalling to our minds all the saints that precede us before God, the Church thus sanctifies every day of the year.

In these times of loss of faith, and of confusion and disorientation, it is well to be firmly rooted in the Liturgy, source par excellence of theology. Our cherished Catholic, traditional, Roman Liturgy renders to our disoriented contemporaries the sense of religion, that Holy Writ calls timor Domini. One day Charlemagne asked his close friend Alcuin, 'What is the Liturgy?' The latter responded, 'The Liturgy is the joy of God.' Dom Guéranger also teaches us that 'the Liturgy is Holy Tradition at its highest degree of power and solemnity.'

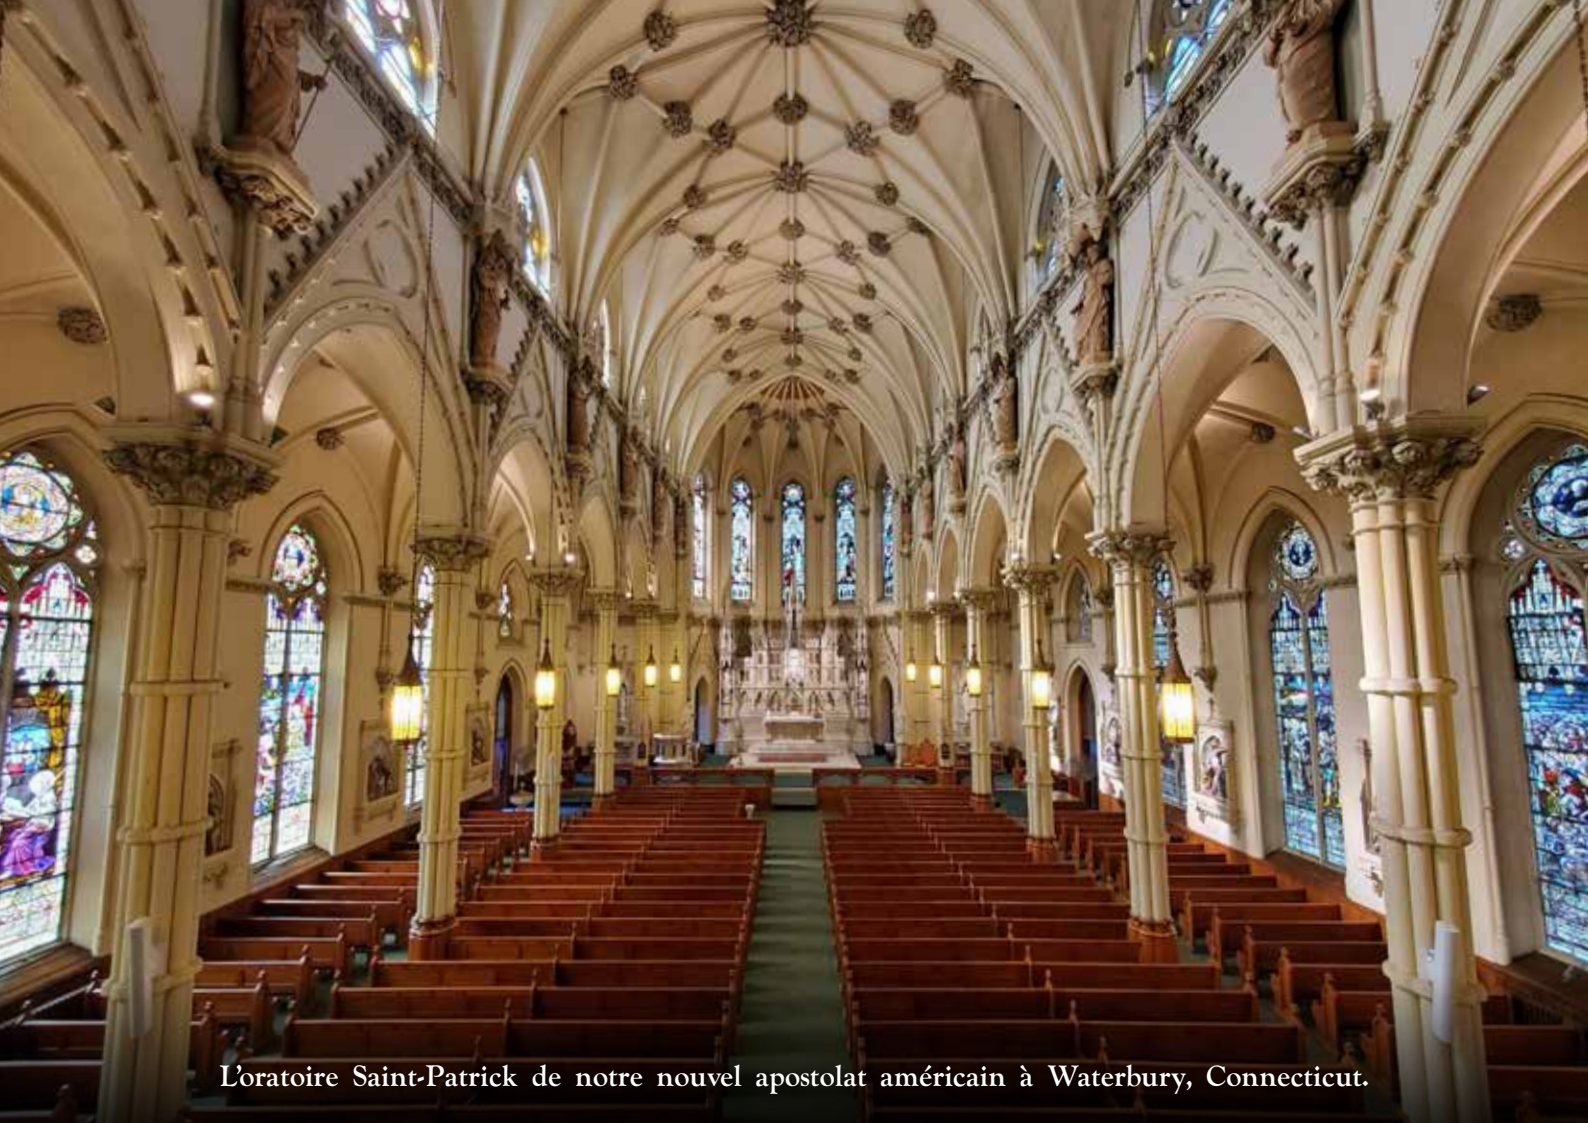

So, from solemnity to solemnity of Our Blessed Lord, of the Blessed Virgin and of all the saints of the calendar, I wish you a most Blessed Year 2020, thirtieth anniversary of the Institute! We will solemnly celebrate this anniversary in Rome where I hope to see you all in great numbers! We will write you soon about this.

May we persevere and always grow in the Faith in this new year of grace, sustained and confirmed by the great Roman Liturgy!

May God bless you all!

M^{sr} Gilles Wach,
Prior General.

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

The Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest is a Society of Apostolic Life of Pontifical Right, composed of secular canons, seminarians, oblates and sisters. The principal patroness of the Institute is Our Lady Immaculate. It also honours as secondary patrons:

- Saint Benedict, due to the importance given by him to liturgical prayer and the relationship between faith and culture.
- Saint Thomas Aquinas, guide of the intellectual formation of our seminarians.
- Saint Francis de Sales, owing to his spiritual teaching, centred on divine charity and accessible to all.

The goal of the Institute is the glory of God and the sanctification of its priests in the service of the Church and of souls. Its specific end is the diffusion of the reign of Christ in all areas of human life.

The Institute counts more than one hundred priests and nearly one hundred seminarians and oblates. Numerous diocesan priests are affiliated to the Institute and many lay people also make up our spiritual family. Our Sister Adorers, who now number over fifty, support the ministry of our priests by their prayers and sacrifices.

The Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest is an apostolic community. Its members work in a variety of contexts, including in parishes and education. They also exercise their apostolate with young people and preach retreats. In all of their endeavours, they seek to promote the vast panoply of supernatural and human values on which Christian civilization was founded.
